Welcome to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel!

We are glad that you have decided to visit the Latin Mass. You might notice that things are a little different, so here are a few quick notes for newcomers:,

1. The Mass is offered in Latin, except for the Epistle, Gospel and sermon. Feel free to borrow one of the missals in the foyer and pray along in English (which is on one side, while Father prays the Latin on the other).

2. Regular attendees dress in their 'Sunday best' — suit and tie for men, dresses and mantillas (veils) or hats for the women. Feel free to borrow a mantilla from the foyer.

3. Those receiving Communion are regular attendees of the Latin Mass, and are not aware of any unconfessed mortal sins. Unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Communion until you have met with Father. Please see the bulletin for Confession times. Any questions on this, please see Father after Mass.

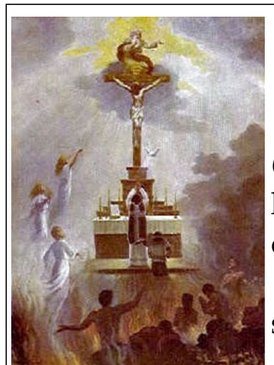

4. Coffee and refreshments will be available after the 10:30 Mass in the kitchen downstairs. Please join us!

If you have any questions, the ushers will be happy to help.

God bless you,

The Clergy, Religious, and members of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, CMRI

De Profundis

Psalm 129

Out of the depths have I cried unto Thee, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice. Let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

If Thou, O Lord, wilt mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand it?

For with Thee there is merciful forgiveness: and by reason of Thy law, I have waited for Thee, O Lord.

My soul hath relied on His word; my soul hath hoped in the Lord. From the morning watch even until night; let Israel hope in the Lord. Because with the Lord there is mercy; and with Him plenteous redemption. And He shall redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace!

"With charity towards the dead, we practice all the works of charity. The Church encourages us to aid the souls in Purgatory, who in turn will reward us abundantly when they come into their glory." - St. Francis de Sales

"If others, why not I?" If they succeeded in becoming holy, why cannot I do likewise?"
- St. Augustine

Wisdom from the Saints

"What does it take to become a saint? Will it." - St. Thomas Aquinas

"Pray as though everything depended on God. Work as though everything depended on you."
- St. Augustine

"The true way to advance in holy virtues, is to persevere in a holy cheerfulness." - St. Philip Neri

"Have patience with all things - but first with yourself. Never confuse your mistakes with your value as a human being. You are a perfectly valuable, creative, worthwhile person simply because you exist. And no amount of triumph or tribulations can ever change that." - St. Francis de Sales

"Love without suffering does not exist." - St. Bernadette

"What matters in life is not great deeds, but great love." "Everything is a grace, everything is the direct effect of our Father's love - difficulties, contradictions, humiliations, all the soul's miseries, her burdens, her needs - everything, because through them, she learns humility, and realizes her weakness. Everything is a grace because everything is God's gift. Whatever be the character of life or its unexpected events - to the heart that loves, all is well." - St. Therese of Lisieux
